Re: Release of Filed Liens

Washington, D.C.

Dear Ms. Lee:

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 20(c) of the Interstate Commerce Act and the regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission promulgated thereunder, numerous documents were transmitted to your office for filing and recording on November 4, 1977 and December 29, 1977.

Those documents evidenced various security interests in railroad box cars owned by Oakington General Partnership and in a lease and management agreement with respect to those box cars.

The secured party now wishes to release its interests in the cars and the agreements relating thereto. Enclosed for filing and recording are two executed and notarized releases for each of the following documents:

1. Agreement and Assignment of Conditional Sale Agreement dated as of October 31, 1977, between Evans Transportation Company, as assignor, and Sun Life Insurance Company of America, as assignee, together with an acknowledgement by Oakington General Partnership--your recordation number 9060-B.

2. Residual Interest Agreement dated as of October 31, 1977, between Oakington General Partnership, Sun Life Insurance Company of America and National Railway Utilization Corporation--your recordation number 9060-D.
